FALL FESTIVAL

Join us for free fun and frights October 26, 2013 from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Bicentennial Park! We will be celebrating Halloween with a spooky haunted house, carnival games, clowns, and balloon animals. Bring your little cowboys, astronauts, firefighters, and princesses for this moonlight masquerade. Be sure to bring your best pre-carved pumpkin for the carving contest and may the best dressed win in our costume contest. Bring your friends and family and 1 can good and you will receive 1 spin on the prize wheel. Don't miss out! See you there!

Community Interest

NU2U Resale had their Grand Opening/Ribbon Cutting Ceremony this month! Mayor Melody Paradise, Council members, Public Safety, Staff, PEDC and Pantego Citizens all came together for the very fun and memorable event!

Make sure to visit our new business at:

NU2U - 2220 W Park Row

Community/Business Partnerships

The Town of Pantego and The Community Relations Board would like to thank Wal-Mart for sponsoring the upcoming Movie Night Event. Such partnerships between local businesses and the community are invaluable and truly help promote the Town. If you are interested in partnering with the CRB on upcoming events please email the board Chairman at: kbkrogers@sbcglobal.net
